

Please do everything possible to keep Indiana's telephone privacy law into effect. The phone calls that we received before it's implement were so harassing that we would often disable our phones. Out of all of the laws that have been passed - this law helps protect our basic rights - not to have intruders harassing us in our homes.